

My wife and I listen, almost exclusively, to XM satellite radio when we are in either of our cars. We live a short distance from Orlando, FL, and go there frequently. It is VERY useful to have the local Orlando weather and traffic reports on XM. Removing them would put us at the mercy of the local FM stations which doesn't seem to be an acceptable alternative.